A Fatal Inversion on Apple Books

A Fatal Inversion Having read this at least twice in print form and watched the BBC TV adaptation, it was great to hear the unabridged audiobook. The story, set in rural Suffolk and London back in the long hot summer of 1976 and ten years on in the mid-late 1980s was brilliant to explore and the attention to detail was amazing.

A Fatal Inversion (Audiobook) by Barbara Vine | Audible.com

A FATAL INVERSION tells how discovery of bodies buried twelve years earlier is bad news indeed for Adam (Douglas Hodge) and Rufus (Jeremy Northam) - memories haunting of a hedonistic summer in an inherited mansion when all went so horribly wrong. Good performances and an outcome few will anticipate.
